

Hey!

I'm Alex and looking forward to working on your next project :)

Hi! This is Alex!

Illustrator and Character Designer, schooled and graduated in Print Design, Gamer, Explorer and Child at heart

Exploring and creating, both creatively and physically wandering Europe in a van from 2018 to 2023, are integral to who I am. I draw a lot of creative inspiration from these physical journeys and believe that a playful mindset only benefits both life and creativity.

I can illustrate for your company, visualise your ideas, mission statement and bring your brand personality to life with illustration and graphics in various styles, Illustrate books, stories, patterns, children related graphics, ads and Print products, as well as for magazines, blogs and editorials.

I have always loved experimenting and learning about any creative tool and subject I could get my hands on, and am happy about any visual challenge to dive into.

So don't hesitate to chat me up with your current project! I am looking forward to exploring and creating the right solution for you.
